WISHING YOU GOD'S BLESSING THIS CHRISTMAS

A year on and the lead into Christmas feels much as it did last year – anxiety about COVID, greater restrictions and an uncertain future for the economy. More than ever we need to hold on to the hope of this season of Advent, that God sticks with us through all that life brings, and in Christ 'all things hold together'. (Col 1v17)

And despite everything there are positives. Chaplaincy has resumed and, this Christmas, Faith at Work chaplains will be able to visit with Christmas greetings and cards. We have started new chaplaincy, despite the lockdown, with the staff of the YMCA.

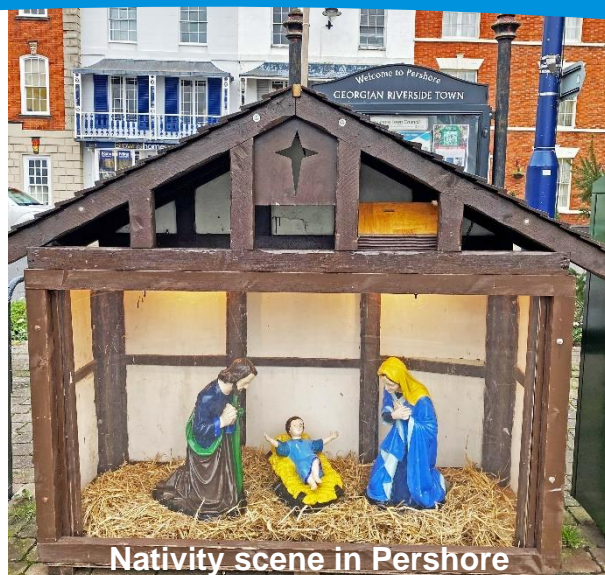

Plans for 2022 are moving ahead and some events are listed below, including 'Discovering Workplace Chaplaincy', the 'Introduction to Workplace Chaplaincy' training course, and the launch of the 'Supporters of Faith at Work in Worcestershire'.

One consequence of the ups and downs of the past two years is that, more than ever, chaplaincy in workplaces is needed. We want to make 2022 a year when we meet that challenge, find more people to be voluntary chaplains, build more partnerships with congregations and extend our reach into new sectors of the economy.

We are grateful for your interest, support and partnership in our work. Please tell others about us and pass on the news of our training and events. Can you think of someone in your church who could be a supporter or chaplain of FWW?

And may God, who comes to us in Christ – Emmanuel – bring you his peace and care and love this Christmas. Yours in Christ.

Launch of Supporters of Faith at Work in Worcestershire

Next year, starting in Lent, we will be launching the Supporters of Faith at Work in Worcestershire (SFWW) and we very much hope that you will want to be involved. This is an initiative we hope will encourage and enable many to put faith into action, within the context of work and the economy, by PRAYING, GIVING, SHARING.

We plan to make Lent 2022 a time for publicising SFWW, inviting people to support us through prayer and giving. Please speak to your church leader to ask if they would like to invite someone from FWW to speak at a service or meeting during Lent (or before or after).

There will be a formal launch event on Wednesday 27th April at 7:00pm at Droitwich Methodist Church, Worcester Road, Droitwich, with Sharon Smith, CEO of H&W Chamber of Commerce, as the keynote speaker. At this point, please put this date in your diary. Further information will follow.
